LOCAL & GENERAL NEWS.

The Attorney-General is better.

Thanks Colonel Norris for papers. Where's the fish?

The Kinau is due to-morrow afternoon from windward.

The San Mateo will be about ten days going up to San Francisco.

The steamer W. G. Hall sails at 10 o'clock to-morrow morning for Maui and Hawaii.

The Post Office despatched by the San Mateo 445 letters and 145 packages of papers.

Col. Sam Migratory Norris is strolling around town again. He arrived from Frisco on the C. D. Bryant.

Ladies who wish to make presents should call and see Mr. W. C. Sproull who has the finest handkerchiefs in the city.

The Japanese steamship Takasago Maru, will be due the latter end of next week from Yokohama with Japanese.

In another column appears the events for the target practice of the Hawaiian Rifle Association, on New Year's day.

J. T. Waterhouse's No. 10 store will be open evenings up to 9 o'clock until Christmas, for the accommodation of the public.

This should have been ladies night at the Honolulu Social Club, but it has been postponed and the gentlemen will meet for practice.

In the Police Court this morning five drunks contributed $30. A nolle proes was entered against a Chinaman, charge with malicious injury.

The Board of Underwriters in this city have an important notice elsewhere to property holders, in regard to buildings vacant and unoccupied.

A special meeting of the Young People's Society, C. E., will be held at the parlors of Central Union Church this evening at 6:30 o'clock.

Mr. C. J. Fishel's grand opening of holiday goods has been a complete success, judging by the crowds of people in attendance and the large sales.

The Hawaiian exhibits mentioned yesterday were exhibited at the exhibition of the Women's Industries and Centenary fair, held in Sydney, N. S. W., October 1888.

The regular monthly meeting of the Y. M. C. A. will be held this evening at the parlors at 7:30. A full attendance is requested as business of importance will be brought up.

A full attendance of the members of the choir of the second congregation of St. Andrew's Cathedral, is requested at a special rehearsal this evening at 7:30 sharp, at the Cathedral.

In A. M. Hewitt's store window is a photograph of Honolulu in 1884, from a sketch twice the size made by Prof. J. D. Dana, on board the ship Peacock of the U. S. exploring expedition in November 1840.

The subject at the meeting of the debating club this evening will be, "Resolved, That the giving of exclusive franchises for works of public benefit is unwise." Mr. G. A. Neth affirmative, Mr. Alex. Robertson negative.

In another column will be found the result of speed contests during the year with the Remington Standard typewriter. The attention of our readers is called to it, and any further particulars may be had of Mr. W. M. Giffard, the agent for these islands.

AUCTION SALES THIS EVENING.

BY L. J. LEVEY.

At 7 o'clock special sale of art goods, China ware, and fine toys.

THE COMING FAIR.

Preparations are being made at the Rifles Armory for the grand fair on Saturday. The King will exhibit some rare curios, and there will be an endless variety of all kinds of articles for sale. At noon a poi lunch will be served.

BE SURE AND BE THERE.

At 7 o'clock this evening, Mr. L. J. Levey will sell at his salesrooms, corner of Queen and Fort streets, a large assortment of holiday goods including crockery, Magolica ware, toys, rugs, Japanese ware and pictures. No reserve whatever. Special accommodations for the ladies.

DOG TAX.

There are some people owning dogs who do not seem to know the law with regard to the tax upon those animals. In sections 4, 5 and 6 of chapter 43 laws of 1882 it says that all dogs shall be subject to a yearly tax of one dollar each. Every owner of a dog shall append in a conspicuous manner to the neck of each and every dog, a tag stamped by the Government, and every dog found without a tag shall be destroyed by the police.

ROMAN CATHOLIC CATHEDRAL.

Next Tuesday, December 25th, is Christmas, a holy day of obligation, kept with great solemnity by the Catholic Church as the birthday of our Saviour. Low masses will commence at 4:30 a. m. and continue till 9. Holy communion from the 5:30 mass to the last one. High pontifical mass at 10 a. m., followed by the baptism of adults and infants.

At 3 p. m. confirmation followed by rosary and the solemn benediction of the M. B. Sacrament. The day previous to Christmas, Monday Dec. 24th, called vigil of Christmas, is a day of fast and abstinence.

CHRISTMAS SERVICES.

On Christmas Day the services for the Second Congregation of St. Andrew's Cathedral will be as follows: 7:30 a. m. choral celebration of Holy Communion; 11:15 a. m. morning prayer with Xmas sermon by Rev. Geo. Wallace, B. D. The music for these services has been specially selected and will be rendered by an augmented choir. At the early service Tours Communion Service in F will be sung with the special Xmas hymns. At 11:15 the musical portion of the service will include the Te Deum and Jubilate in F by B. Tours, anthem, "Sing, O Heavens," by Tours, Tallis' festival responses and three Christmas hymns.

THE SAN MATEO.

The steamship San Mateo which arrived yesterday afternoon from Hongkong, has been placed under the Hawaiian flag. She brought no passengers nor freight from Hongkong, and took none to San Francisco, for which place she left this afternoon. Capt. Crowell, was very much pleased at finding he would only be detained here a few hours. The steamer was consigned to the house of G. W. Macfarlane & Co. who transacted all business during her stay off port. The San Mateo, on arrival at San Francisco will be placed in the coal trade between that place and Departure Bay. She is specially fitted up for the carrying of freight.

A man living near Nottingham, Eng., has received a letter signed "Jack, the Ripper's Pal," stating that both the writer and "Jack," committed the recent murders in the Whitechapel district. The writer says: "Jack is a Bavarian whom I first met aboard ship returning from America, and who exercised mesmeric influence over me."

Underwriter's Notice.

HONOLULU, December 18, 1888.

WHEREAS a number of fires having lately occurred in buildings vacant and unoccupied, the Board of Underwriters deem it their duty to call the attention of policy holders in these islands to the clauses contained in the policy, the substance of which reads as follows:

"No liability shall exist under this policy for loss on any vacant or unoccupied buildings, unless a consent for such vacancy or non-occupancy be hereon indorsed; provided, that dwellings may remain vacant not exceeding 10 days without such indorsement."

We therefore recommend the observance of the above condition of insurance.

By order of the Board of Underwriters.
